Pavilion

BEDROOM COLLECTION

Designed by John B. Wisner, F.A.I.D.

The Pavilion collection is dramatic evidence that bedroom furniture can be distinctively different and still be perfectly "at home" in various settings. Pavilion's fresh, semi-formal appearance makes it eminently suitable for the guest room or master bedroom. In a second home, whether this be a vacation hideaway or condominium, Pavilion is equally appropriate.

The beauty of Pavilion's craftsmanship is immediately apparent. Every piece is a skillful blending of handsome styling, quality construction and colorful materials that combine to assume instant appeal for selective buyers. Rattan, used sparingly but convincingly for emphasis on every piece, creates a pleasant decorative effect.

The consummate effect of Pavilion is one of graceful design and uncommon beauty. Almost unlimited selection of colors, finishes and fabrics makes this possible, so that a decorative theme of your choice is comparatively easy to execute.

An array of 22 finishes provides initial flexibility for compatible color harmony. This decor horizon is extended with the availability of 14 different top surfaces in wood or laminated plastic on the case pieces, and a variety of fabrics, colors and patterns for chair, stool and bench seat covers. Polished brass hardware in a bamboo motif adds an elegant finishing touch.

This spectrum for individual preferences is reason enough to make Pavilion so special. It's typical of Ficks Reed's never-ending desire to create a decorative product which is a contributing factor in our long established reputation for quality furniture.

Country Casual

Summertime . . .
and the living is easy
Here is an invitation
to relax . . .
a bit of outdoors
brought indoors.
Country Casual
has a charm
all its own,
a style that is gay
and fresh and carefree.
In mansion or cottage,
town house or
vacation home,
Country Casual is right
wherever
well-bred informality
is desired.
